Allianz Partners appoints a new board member to lead global operations

With operations being a key driver of Allianz Partners' transformation, Lars Rogge joins the Allianz Partners Board of Management as Chief Operating Officer, reporting to Sirma Boshnakova, CEO of Allianz Partners. His appointment is effective as of April 2020.

Based in Saint-Ouen (Paris), Lars Rogge is responsible for ensuring the smooth daily functioning of the business globally while accelerating its transformation. Furthermore, he will be focusing on the simplification of Allianz Partners' operating processes to enable future sustainable growth on the Assistance and Insurance markets.

Lars Rogge joined Allianz in 2009 as Head of Group Project Office for Allianz SE, where he was responsible for the development of the "Core Group Project" Portfolio in alignment with the Group's strategy. From 2014 to 2015, he was Head of COO Office & Head of Central Program Steering "Betrieb" at Allianz Deutschland AG, supporting the COO in the management of Operations. In 2015 he became Global Head of Operations for Travel, Assistance & Digital at Allianz

Partners. He holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in Munich.

Sirma Boshnakova, CEO of Allianz Partners said: "Lars is a seasoned business leader with an outstanding track record in operational management. His expertise combined with his leadership skills and in-depth knowledge of the Allianz Group will help us continue our operational transformation and the simplification of our processes. Thanks to his leadership, Allianz Partners has been able to ensure business continuity globally for our partners and customers during the Covid-19 pandemic with a smooth transition to remote working for staff. I welcome Lars to our Board and look forward to continuing to work together to unlock potential areas of efficiency and growth."
