3 Insured benefits

- 3.1 In the event of death
 The agreed insured amount if the insured person dies within three years of suffering an accident and due to the consequences of that accident.
- 3.1.1 Payment of this capital is made to the legal heirs, provided the insured person has not left written instructions to the contrary.
- 3.1.2 If the accident causes the death of the insured person, the agreed insured amount will be paid out minus any disability payments already paid for the same accident.
- 3.2 In the event of disability
 The capital sum is calculated in accordance with the following principles, if the insured person suffers permanent physical or psychological damage to their health within three years of the accident, as a result of the accident.
- 3.2.1 The disability capital is calculated on the basis of the degree of disability and the insured amount agreed in the insurance policy. Benefits are limited to 100% of the stipulated capital.

3.2.2 The assessment of the degree of disability is carried out according to medical report, irrespective of the profession or occupation of the insured person. It is therefore irrelevant whether and to what extent a loss of earnings occurs.

The following fixed degrees of disability apply in the event of total loss or full loss of use:

– loss of at least two limbs of a long finger or a limb of the thumb	5 %
– loss of a thumb	20 %

3.2.3 In the event of the partial loss or partial loss of use, a corresponding degree of disability is applied.

3.2.4 If several body parts or organs are simultaneously affected, the degree of disability is established by adding up the individual losses, up to 100% of the insured amount.

3.2.5 In cases which are not mentioned above, the degree of disability will be determined on the basis of the above percentages.

3.2.6 If previous physical deficiencies complicate the aftermath of the accident, they do not increase the degree of disability above that of a physically sound person having suffered an accident. If body parts were missing or could not be used in part or in full before the accident, the already existing level of disability will be deducted from the degree of disability determined according to the criteria above.

3.2.7 Compensation will only be paid for psychological or nervous disorders, if they can be traced to an organic disease of the nervous system caused by the accident.

3.3 Maximum liability/maximum benefit

If the same event leads to the death or disability of several persons insured with Allianz Travel, the benefits to be paid by Allianz Travel are limited to CHF 10,000,000 for all persons insured with Allianz Travel. Allianz Travel must be informed of a death as soon as possible, so that a post-mortem can be carried out, if other causes of death are possible as well as an accident.

If Allianz Travel organises measures, it will inform the relatives and employer of the insured person where necessary about the facts of the case and the measures taken.

2 Advance payment to a hospital

If the insured person experiences a serious illness, a serious accident, complications associated with pregnancy or a medically confirmed, unexpected worsening of a chronic condition during the business trip and needs to be hospitalised outside their country of residence, Allianz Travel will make an advance payment of up to CHF 5,000 towards hospital costs where necessary. Allianz Travel must be reimbursed for the advance payment within 30 days of leaving the hospital.

3 Home care

If, during the business trip, there is an emergency at the insured person's permanent residence in Switzerland and this is due to fire, a natural event, break-in, water-related events or glass breakage, Allianz Travel will provide the insured person with the telephone number of a suitable tradesman. The tradesman will be commissioned by the insured person and perform immediate work to ensure there is no further loss. The costs for the emergency rectification of the loss must be borne by the insured person. The insured person receives the invoice directly from the tradesman.
